me learning
learning made easy

Logo

me learning
learning made easy

Hate Crime ARCHIVED

Introduction

This course will provide an awareness of what a hate crime and hate incident is and how prevalent hate crimes are. You will learn who the victims and perpetrators are, what effect hate crimes have on a person, and what the current challenges are. This course will introduce you to the law around hate crime and how to respond to an incident.

Me Learning
Learning made easy

Hate Crime

Audience

This course is suitable for anyone working with vulnerable people, or for anyone who wishes to increase their awareness of hate crime, and understand how to recognise and respond to hate crimes, including:

- All practitioners who come into contact with people
- Frontline health and social care staff
- Volunteers
- General public

Objectives

In this course you will learn:

What a hate crime is
How it effects the victim
Who the victim and perpetrators are How prevalent hate crime is About the law
How to respond to hate crime incidents
How to keep safe on the internet
What happens after a hate crime is reported

Modules

This course contains the following modules:

Module name
What is Hate Crime?
The Law
How to Respond

Content

Some of the topics covered are:

What a hate crime is, how it effects the victim, who the victim and perpetrators are, how prevalent hate crime is, about the law, how to respond to hate crime incidents, how to keep safe on the internet, what happens after a hate crime is reported, why victims don't report hate crime, what your role as an reporter of hate crime is.

CPD CERTIFIED
The CPD Certification Service
Collective Mark

Logo